

Bonfire night – Guy Fawkes

Bonfire Night is a uniquely British event when we "celebrate" the discovery of the Gunpowder Plot against the King and Parliament in the early 17th Century.

The story is remembered each 5th November when 'Guys' made of old clothes stuffed with paper or straw to look like Guy Fawkes are burned and fireworks are lit in a celebration known as "Bonfire Night".

"Remember, remember,
the fifth of November,
Gunpowder, treason and plot.
We see no reason why
Gunpowder treason
Should ever be forgot!"
